SEN. BROOME PARTNERS WITH REP. BARROW AND COUNCILWOMAN EDWARDS TO HOST BACK-TO-SCHOOL RALLY

District 15 State Senator Sharon Weston Broome, District 29 State Representative Regina Ashford Barrow and Councilwoman Ronnie Edwards will host a back-to-school rally Saturday, August 7, 2010. "Exploring Science", a special event to inform parents and students of educational resources available in the community, will be held from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM at Glen Oaks Middle School at 5300 Monarch Ave.

There will be special guest appearances by the LASM Discovery Dome and many others. Students will have the opportunity to play interactive science games and other activities. Students and families will also be able to visit other various exhibits! A limited number of FREE school supplies will be available, along with door prizes and free food.

The event is free and open to students and families throughout the community. It is sponsored by the following community partners: Urban Restoration Enhancement Corporation, Southern Recycling, ExxonMobil, Coca Cola, Louisiana State University, Southern University and A&M, LASM, CH2M HILL and Glen Oaks Security Dads.

For more information, please contact Sen. Sharon Weston Broome's office at 225.359.9352.
