SENATE BILL NO. —(Substitute of Senate Bill No. 618 by Senator McPherson)

BY SENATOR MCPHERSON

AN ACT

To enact R.S. 9:2716, relative to contracts; to provide for automatic renewal of contracts; to provide for disclosure of procedures regarding cancellation of such contracts; to provide for exceptions upon failure to notify consumers; to provide for applicability and exceptions; and to provide for related matters. Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 9:2716 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§2716. Contracts with automatic renewal clauses

A. Any person, firm, or corporation engaged in commerce that sells, leases, or offers to sell or lease, any products or services to a consumer pursuant to a contract, where the contract automatically renews unless the consumer cancels the contract, shall disclose the automatic renewal clause clearly and conspicuously in the contract or contract offer.

B. Any person, firm, or corporation engaged in commerce that sells, leases, or offers to sell or lease, any products or services to a consumer pursuant to a contract, where the contract automatically renews unless the consumer cancels the contract, shall disclose clearly and conspicuously how to cancel the contract in the initial contract, contract offer, or with delivery of products or services.

C. A person, firm, or corporation that fails to comply with the requirements of this Section is in violation of this Section unless the person, firm, or corporation demonstrates that all of the following are its routine business practice:

(1) It has established and implemented written procedures to comply with this Section and enforces compliance with the procedures.

(2) Any failure to comply with this Section is the result of error.

(3) Where an error has caused the failure to comply with this Section, it provides a full refund or credit for all amounts billed to or paid by the consumer from the date of the renewal until the date of the termination of the contract, or the date of the subsequent notice of renewal, whichever occurs first.

D. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to the following:

(1) The Louisiana Rental-Purchase Agreement Act as provided in R.S. 9:3351 through 3362.

(2) Banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, savings banks, or credit unions licensed or organized under the laws of any state or the United States, or any foreign bank maintaining a branch or agency licensed under the laws of the United States, or any subsidiary or affiliate thereof.

(3) Insurers licensed under Title 22 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.

(4) A contract entered into before January 1, 2011.

(5) A contract that allows for cancellation by the consumer by written notice within thirty days or within one month, after the initial period has expired.

E. Any contract automatically renewed in violation of this Section shall revert to a thirty day renewal contract in accordance with the same terms.

On motion of Senator Quinn, the committee substitute bill was adopted and becomes Senate Bill No. 802 by Senator McPherson, substitute for Senate Bill No. 618 by Senator McPherson.

On page 1, delete lines 8 through 17 in their entirety and insert the following:

"§258.1. Contingent fee contracts; approval; requirements; fee determination; definitions

A. As used in this Section:

(1) "Contingent fee" means the percentage or percentages that shall accrue to an attorney or law firm in the event of settlement, trial, or appeal for professional services performed under a contingent fee contract, the amount or payment of which is contingent on the outcome of the matter for which the services were obtained.

(2) "Contingent fee contract" means a contract for legal services under which the amount or the payment of the fee for the services and reimbursement of reasonable costs and expenses is contingent in whole or in part on the outcome of the matter for which the services were obtained.

(3) "State funds" means all funds owed to or received by the state from any source whatsoever, including but not limited to federal funding sources, or funds which have been misused, misappropriated, stolen, or are due the state by law or contract.

(4) "State property" means both "public things" as provided for in Civil Code Articles 450 through 452 and "private things" belonging to the state as provided for in Civil Code Article 453.

(5) "Defendant" means a person or entity against whom a claim is made.

B.(1) The attorney general may enter into a contingent fee contract with a contracting private attorney or law firm appointed for representation of the state or any of its agencies, boards, commissions or departments for claims relating to the recovery of state property or state funds or the payment of compensation owed to the state or any of its agencies, boards, or commissions on a contingent fee basis provided that all of the following terms are complied with:

(a) The attorney general reports to the Litigation Subcommittee of the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget that the claims are valid with substantial evidence to indicate a true loss to the state or any of its agencies, boards, commissions or departments.

(b) The attorney general has identified and interviewed no less than three attorneys or law firms with the resources, experience and ability to handle the case on behalf of the state.

(c) The attorney general, prior to entering a contingency fee contract with a private attorney or law firm, shall make a written determination that the representation is both cost-effective and in the public's best interest.

(d) The attorney general, prior to entering a contingency fee contract with a private attorney or law firm, shall make a written determination that there are not sufficient legal or financial resources within the Attorney General's Office to handle the matter.

(e) The attorney general, after notice to the defendant, has obtained the approval of the contract at a public hearing of the Litigation Subcommittee of the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget.

(2) The attorney general shall at all times retain the legal authority to control litigation initiated through a contingent fee contract, including but not limited to the authority to settle or to voluntarily dismiss the case.

C.(1) The contingent fee contract shall require that the contracting private attorney or law firm keep current and report monthly on the attorney's time, complete costs, and expenses and describe in detail those items relative to performing the contract.

(2) The contracting private attorney or law firm shall permit the attorney general and the legislative auditor each to inspect or obtain copies of the expense records at any time on request.

(3) All payment of contingency fees shall be available for public inspection on the attorney general's website within fifteen days of payment and remain on the attorney general's website for three years after the contract is terminated.

(4) Copies of the contracts and written determinations shall be available for public inspection on the attorney general's website within five days after the date of execution of the contract and remain on the attorney general's website for three years after the contract is terminated.

D. If the contracting private attorney or law firm has been appointed pursuant to this Section to represent the state on a contingent fee basis, such fee shall be payable out of all sums the contracting private attorney or law firm recovers for the state. The attorney general shall not enter into a contingency fee contract that provides for the contracting private attorney or law firm to receive an aggregate contingency fee in excess of:

(a) Twenty-five percent of any recovery of up to fifty million dollars.

(b) Twenty percent of any portion of such recovery between fifty million and one hundred million dollars.

(c) Fifteen percent of any portion of such recovery exceeding one hundred million to two hundred fifty million dollars.

(d) Ten percent of any portion of such recovery exceeding two hundred fifty million dollars.

E.(1) In addition to the contingency fee, reasonable costs and expenses incurred in the prosecution of the claim shall be reimbursed to the contracting private attorney or law firm as provided for in this Subsection.

(2) Prior to the court making an award of reasonable costs and expenses in contingent fee cases, each attorney or law firm employed on such basis by the attorney general shall submit affidavits of correctness to the court required by this Section for reimbursement of costs and expenses pursuant to this Subsection. No cost or expense shall be paid unless submitted by an affidavit as provided in this Paragraph to the court.

F.(1) A contingent fee under a contract with the attorney general, and all reasonable costs and expenses as provided for in Paragraphs (E)(1) and (E)(2) of this Section, shall be payable out of all sums the private attorney or law firm recovers for the state. Such payments shall not exceed the amount of all sums the contracting private attorney or law firm recovers for the state. If no sums are recovered by the private attorney or law firm, no amounts, including amounts for costs and expenses, shall be owed or paid by the state to the contracting private attorney or law firm.

(2) All monies recovered for the state under any such contract shall, after private attorney fees, costs, and expenses are deducted, be transmitted to the state treasurer for deposit into the state treasury.

G. The attorney general shall adopt rules and regulations in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, R.S. 49:950 et seq., to implement the provisions of this Section.

H. The provisions of R.S. 49:257(G)(1)(d) and 258 shall not be applicable to this Section.

I. This Section shall not apply to nor shall otherwise affect the authority to enter into contingency fee contracts independently granted to other agencies under any other law, including but not limited to R.S. 41:922, R.S. 47:1512, R.S. 42:1157.3, R.S. 37:2153, and R.S. 23:1669.

Section 2. The provisions of this Act are deemed procedural in nature and shall be applicable to contracts entered into subsequent to March 29, 2010."

SENATE COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS

Amendments proposed by Senate Committee on Environmental Quality to Reengrossed House Bill No. 904 by Representative Austin Badon

AMENDMENT NO. 1

On page 1, delete lines 13 through 20 and insert the following:

"(h) (1) In addition to any other rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this Chapter, no solid waste landfill or any other solid waste disposal facility which receives residential or commercial solid waste shall store, process, or dispose of such waste within three hundred feet from the inside of the facility's property line where such property line is adjacent to a structure currently being used as a church. In order for this Subparagraph to apply, the church shall have been utilized as such prior to the department's receipt of the facility's permit application. The department may promulgate rules and regulations providing for a waiver of the provisions of this Subparagraph upon the consent from all landowners having an ownership interest in property otherwise subject to this Subparagraph.

(2) The provisions of this Subparagraph shall not apply to any landfill or disposal facility existing prior to April 1, 2010, to any portion of such facility that has been closed or that has ceased operations, or to future expansions of the permitted disposal area of any such facility."
