STATE SENATOR BROOME SETS CITIZENS MEETINGS

District 15 State Senator Sharon Weston Broome (D-Baton Rouge) will hold a series of community meetings in the Senate District 15 area during the months of March and April. Sen. Broome will discuss redistricting and other important legislative issues affecting constituents in the district and review her legislative package for the upcoming Regular Session.

Sen. Broome is partnering with representatives from the Department of Insurance at these meetings and will be discussing the department's "Let's Talk Insurance" initiative. Representatives from the Louisiana Workforce Commission and Department of Health and Hospitals will also be in attendance. District 63 Representative Dalton Honore' (D- Baton Rouge) will also be joining Sen. Broome for the meetings in Baker and Scotlandville.

Sen. Broome urges citizens in the area to take advantage of this opportunity to learn more about important state issues.
